

*사용법

1. ebs 원문을 공부한다. (본인만의 방법으로)
2. 여기에 있는 문장들을 읽어본다.
3. 의미가 확 들어오는건 다 넘기고, 애매하거나 아예 안되는 것들은 출처를 찾아가 문맥과 함께 읽어본다.
4. 이 때 의미가 들어오면 넘기고, 그래도 안되면 여러 방법을 통해 의미를 알아낸다.
5. 그렇게 안된 문장들만 체크해두고, 수시로 읽어준다.

1. Or worse still, none will have the focus and all will be, although slightly clearer, noise, but degrees of noise all the same. – 수능특강 3-1

2. The underlying idea is that because colors carry information about which kinds of objects an organism should or should not interact with, it would be of benefit if the organism "liked" the colors that send approach signals and "disliked" the ones that send avoid signals, as these aesthetic experiences will lead the organism to behave adaptively. – 수능특강 3-6

3. The quarterback who needs to read the defense before deciding which receiver to throw to would likely perform better if he were not angry.
– 수능특강 6-4

4. Sir George Jessel, a famous public speaker, once said, 'The human brain starts working the moment you are born and never stops until you stand up to speak in public' – 수능특강 6-5

5. For example, new knowledge produced in physics might be applied to problems only of interest to theorists and thus be labeled "basic," while more "applied" work is relevant to a larger network of communities of practice that might include health professionals, manufactures or materials science engineers. – 수능특강 7-4

6. In all honesty, teachers would not enjoy their work environment quite as much with someone constantly looking over their shoulder, and neither do the students. – 수능특강 7-5

7. Counseling, using life review techniques, helped the younger woman mourn the loss not only of her 83-year-old sister but of the sister she wished for but had never had. – 수능특강 8-4

8. When people with above-average IQ encounter claims that they know little about (which is most claims for most of us), intelligence is usually not a factor in belief, with one exception: once people commit to a belief, the smarter they are the better they are at rationalizing those beliefs.

- 수능특강 11-2

9. You might think that this marks us out as a cut above the rest of life, but you would be wrong. - 수능특강 13-1

10. Crucially, brain scans show that during calculations activity is not merely confined to the left hemisphere, but is also present in the visual, auditory, and motor areas of the brain. - 수능특강 13-6

11. Researchers have evidence that suggests that helping by children really is motivated by genuine care for others. - 수능특강 15-4

12. About what goes on today hangs a cloud of thoughts concerning similar things undergone in bygone days. - 수능특강 16-5

13. Human beings have a deep capacity for isolationism, for splitting into groups that diverge from each other. - 수능특강 16-6

14. Biondi was inched out for the gold by another swimmer who made a greater effort in the last meter. - 수능특강 17-5

15. This little fact evidently caused no end of headaches as Barry's career unfolded. - 수능특강 19-2

16. Benjamin Lincoln, a Revolutionary War general, spoke for most Americans of his day when he observed in 1792, "Civilization directs us to remove as fast as possible that natural growth from the lands."

- 수능 특강 20-2

17. In part, this is as it should be: other problems, much more difficult to address at the household level, are clearly more urgent than recovery of materials from trash. - 수능특강 21-3

18. Just as in ancient days men kept slaves to work for them, so some ants raid the homes of other ants, and, making them captives, bring them back to their own nests and compel them to work for their captors.

- 수능특강 22-3

19. Potential is fulfilled by action, just as a seed, with its inward certainty of bursting life and future fruit generations, is fulfilled by action through water, soil, and Sun. - 수능특강 22-4

20. Once you realize you're being misguided into believing that things are worse than they are, you can, with a little courage, step out into the sunshine. - 수능특강 27-3

21. Featuring binoculars large enough to walk into which cover most of the store frontage, this spectacular building by star architect Frank Gehry says: what is going on behind the main front has to do with insight, far-sightedness and forward thinking. - 수능특강 29-2

22. However, if we accept our aloneness, we can give ourselves to our projects and our relationships out of our freedom instead of running to them out of our fear. - 수능특강 test 1-5

23. The adhesives are so strong that unless they are removed with great care the actor's skin can be so badly affected that shooting may be held up. - 수능특강 test 1-22

24. He pursued good, clear thinking and did not stand on his position or office, because he was not too arrogant or proud to back down or accept other ideas. -수능특강 test 1-24~25

25. We do not, in fact, imagine everything that will take place, nor do we attempt to do so, nor could we do so. - 수능특강 test 2-19

26. There is no widely used English word - and consequently no clearly identified concept - to signal whether the uncle one is referring to is the father's brother or the mother's brother. - 수능특강 test 2-20